Richard L. Rumsey Ltd. welcomes referrals from other attorneys. Over the years, many of our largest recoveries have come from cases referred to us by our fellow lawyers.

We have built referral relationships with attorneys from all areas of the legal community—from the largest law firms to sole practitioners fresh out of law school. Attorneys who have worked against us in cases in the past are among our ever-growing group of referring attorneys.

Our mission is to develop mutually beneficial relationships with other attorneys and law firms. We will use our expertise, experience and effort to maximize the recovery. As a referring attorney, your client will be treated with dignity and respect. We take every referral seriously and every new referral is given our personal attention.

As a referring attorney you will find us to be personable, accommodating and accessible. We are never too busy to talk to you or answer questions for you and your clients.

Richard L. Rumsey Ltd. pays attorney referral fees in accordance with Illinois law and the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct.
