Our Approach

Richard L. Rumsey Ltd. is dedicated to providing injured persons with the highest quality legal representation. We never lose sight of the fact that we represent individuals and families whose lives have been seriously impacted by tragedy and loss. You will be treated with respect, dignity and compassion.

Results

We are a results-oriented injury law firm with an excellent track record of success and an outstanding reputation in the legal community. We receive the vast majority of our cases through recommendations from lawyers, retired judges, clients and former clients.

Hands- On Investigation

We are a hands-on law firm. You may see us at a construction site, industrial site or roadway injury with our investigators, evidence photographers and expert engineers to conduct thorough investigations so that we can develop the strongest case possible for you.

Connection with the Client

You are not just another case to us. You can call and you will get answers. Your needs will be attended to promptly. In fact, we will probably come to recognize your voice on the telephone. After an injury, we know that you will have questions and worries. We will do our best to answer your questions and explain how we plan to recover damages for you or your loved ones.
